

How to Get Started

Greenway volunteers must be at least 18 years of age without any felony or Class A misdemeanor convictions. Criminal background checks are required.

Volunteers will be given a shirt and vest identifying them as a Greenway Volunteer. Volunteer cyclists or walkers will use their own equipment and are asked to carry cell phones to report trouble on the Greenways.

Volunteers will not only perform their daily routine, but will also help monitor activity on the Greenways and report unsafe conditions.

The City of Raleigh Greenway Volunteer Program is designed for volunteers to perform duties based on their schedule.

Volunteers are required to call the Raleigh Police Department's main number prior to the beginning and at the end of each patrol. Volunteers will also complete a Volunteer Report Form in the event they encounter an unusual circumstance.

Greenway volunteers use good judgment and common sense. They are outgoing, have good communication skills, and are safety-oriented.

All Greenway volunteers will go through a short training class with the Raleigh Police Department. After completion of the training, volunteers will be relied upon to fulfill their obligations and responsibilities.
