

PULLEN ARTS CENTER – SUMMER 2014

DISCOVER YOUR CREATIVE SIDE

Fibers Classes

Fibers - Introduction to Silk Painting

Age 16 yrs. and up.

In this one day weekend workshop you will learn the basic techniques of silk painting. Learn to build your own silk painting frame, experiment with color mixing, create practice samples and two wearable scarves.

Participants will learn and experience everything they need to know in order to continue working with this wonderful and approachable medium on their own. A supply fee of $30 for 3 silk scarves, a stretcher frame, and paints will be due at the start of class. Instructor: A. Brooke Heuts (1 session)

Class Fee: $46

Fibers - Tradition on Tradition

Age 16 yrs. and up.

In conjunction with the Gregg Museum of Art & Design's spring exhibition, Pullen Arts Center is pleased to offer artist Susan Oliver Fennell's Tradition on Tradition weekend workshop. Referencing imagery from the exhibit, participants will create cloth using a traditional form of Japanese textile craft, 'shiborizome.' Students will experience stitch resist and indigo dyeing, completing at least one piece during the workshop. A supply fee of $15 will be due at the beginning of class. Instructor: Susan Oliver Fennell (2 sessions)

Class Fee: $85
