

2011-2012
PARKING GUIDE

Welcome to the City of Raleigh

from "ParkLink", the City's Parking Program

The on-street parking program is now managed and staffed by City employees from their new office located in One Bank of America Plaza at the intersection of Wilmington Street and Cabarrus Street. ParkLink is responsible for enforcement, appeals, collections, parking meters and residential permits.

Ph: (919) 996-3996

Off Street Contract: McLaurin Parking Company operates the City's decks and parking lots, and manages monthly accounts.

Ph: (919) 833-7522

On-Street Metered Parking

Parking Rates are in effect 8 AM - 5 PM Monday to Friday

$1.00 = 1 hour

.25 = 15 min

.10 = 6 min

.05 = 3 min

Pay stations accept coin, Visa and MasterCard transactions. Repeat metering is not permitted.

Special Event Parking

City-operated decks charge a flat fee to park for annual events that take place on weekends or after hours. All events are $7 except First Night and Artspllosure which are $5. This list does not preclude charging a flat fee in certain decks for other large events if necessary. Please note that the special event rate in the Convention Center Deck is never less than $7.

- First Night (1 day)
- Artspllosure (2 days)
- World Beer Festival (1 day)
- Raleigh Wide Open (2 days)
- BikeFest (2 days)

For further information concerning special event parking, please contact McLaurin Parking at (919) 833-7522.

Parking FAQ's

- Q. What is the fine for meter and time zone violations?
- A. $20
- Q. Can I re-feed parking meters?
- A. Meters are regulated and enforced for short-term parking of 2 hours or less as designated. If you think you need more than 2 hours, you should park in a deck to avoid the possibility of being cited.
- Q. I have a handicap permit. Do I have to pay to park at a meter?
- A. Yes. While you are exempt from time restrictions you are now required to pay for the time you need to park.
- Q. Is there a required distance to park from a driveway?
- A. Yes. Not less than 5 feet from either side of a private or public driveway.
- Q. How close can I park to a fire hydrant?
- A. Not less than 15 feet from either side of a fire hydrant.
- Q. How close can I park to a crosswalk?
- A. Not less than 12 feet from either side of a crosswalk.
- Q. How far from the curb am I allowed to park?
- A. Not more than 12 inches in unmarked parking spaces. In delineated spaces vehicles must not be outside of the space lines.
- Q. Can I park in a materials loading zone?
- A. Only if you are actively loading or unloading materials. Citations are issued when there is no sign of "activity" to or from the vehicle. Loading zones have a 1-hour maximum time limit.
- Q. What is the difference between "Commercial" and regular loading zones?
- A. Commercial loading zones are restricted to vehicles displaying a commercial tag and/or the company name displayed on both sides.
- Q. Why was my vehicle booted?
- A. Vehicles with three (3) or more unpaid citations are subject to being booted.

For Your Safety

IF YOUR VEHICLE IS BROKEN INTO OR STOLEN

Call 911 immediately. Stolen vehicles are frequently used in the commission of other crimes. Prompt reporting will help to recover your vehicle and may prevent its use for other illegal purposes.

PARKING

Park in a well-lit, busy area, especially in the evening or if you expect to return to your vehicle late at night. The Downtown Raleigh Safety Ambassadors who patrol our parking decks also provide free safe-walk escorts to and from vehicles upon request. Call them at the number listed below. Please report any safety issues or parking maintenance concerns to McLaurin Parking at the number listed below.

PROTECTING VALUABLES

Take personal items of value with you, or lock them in your trunk. Do not leave luggage, packages and other valuables in plain view to tempt a thief. Engrave accessories such as removable CD players and GPS units with a unique identity number.
