Fibers – Slice and Dice Improvisational Art Quilting

Pullen Arts Center
 Age: 16yrs and up. Want to learn to quilt or already know how but don't want to be fussy and precise or follow someone else's pattern? Then try your hand at making an Improvisational Art Quilt wall hanging. You will design and create as you go! We will start by selecting a group of 10 or more fabrics that work together color wise but vary in print scale and tone to create a lively and interesting combination. You will piece together your fabrics in a seemingly random and fun manner then slice them up and sew them back together again. Even with all this seemingly random cutting and piecing your work will come together in a cohesive wall quilt. We will also cover some different quilting techniques as well as ways to embellish and finish your project. A basic understanding of sewing is required. Students must have their own functioning sewing machine with a compatible walking foot. Students provide their own supplies. Contact the Pullen Arts Center for the supply list. 919-831-6126.
