City News

Downtown Raleigh Pedestrian Safety Study

The North Carolina Department of Transportation, City of Raleigh, and other state agencies are partnering to identify opportunities for improving pedestrian safety in Downtown Raleigh. The study area extends from Hargett Street to Peace Street, from Bloodworth Street to Dawson Street, and it focuses on the State Government Complex. The project team has developed a short online survey to ask about your experience with pedestrian safety in the study area. All survey responses will be treated anonymously.

Please take a few minutes to complete this short survey. Your feedback is important to us!

Grants for local groups that support entrepreneurship
