

Basic Drawing

Learn all the basic principals of visual art in this supportive, encouraging class.

Many people are afraid to draw because they're self-critical, are afraid to fail, or are too concerned with what others think. But drawing is more about learning to see than making straight lines. For absolute beginners and those who missed a good foundation.

There will 30 minute drop-in orientation every week 10:00 AM-10:30 AM

All materials are supplied.

Anne Gordon Center

Class Fee: $25.00

#178608 May 19 - June 16
Tuesday 10:00am to 1:00pm

All About Watercolor

Watercolor is a misunderstood medium! This portable medium is a beautiful way to learn about light, the relationships of color and the basic elements of painting.

Suzanne's teaching methods is engaging and encouraging. This class is designed for absolute beginners and for experienced artists who want to learn about watercolor in a refreshingly different way. Expand your understanding of yourself and your personal mark making.

Anne Gordon Center

Class Fee: $25.00

#178626 June 23 - July 28
Tuesday 10am to 1pm

Introduction to Watercolor Pencil

If you love drawing and are really interested in making the leap to watercolor but have reservations, learning how to work with watercolor pencils is a perfect transition experience.

In this course, we'll start by learning about how watercolor pencils work and then move on through exercise based on master painting, leading us to a piece unique to each of us.

Five Points Center

Class Fee: $25.00

#178639 June 30 - August 4
Tuesday 10am to 1pm

Suzanne McDermott is an artist, writer and musician who has taught drawing and watercolor across North America for almost twenty years. Specializing in foundation work and expressive mark making, Suzanne believes that creativity is a sure route to self-realization and personal transformation.

